Dear friends

To all my friends

Through most of May we shall be in the Easter season – celebrating the best news of all – that Jesus is alive. Then, on 30th May, we shall be remembering how Jesus ascended into heaven and is seated on the right hand of God constantly interceding for us. No matter what the world might throw at us we can draw comfort from the knowledge that Jesus will always be there for us.

Yet there are so many in the world who does not know him. The bible says, “But how can people call for help if they don’t know who to trust? And how can they know who to trust if they haven’t heard of the One who can be trusted? And how can they hear if nobody tells them?” (Romans 10:14-16, the Message Version). As we celebrate Easter let’s do our best to tell the good news.

Take time to reflect

THE digital age has great advantages. Through e-mails, texts and tweets we can communicate quickly. The disadvantage is that it doesn’t cultivate us in a desire to think about things deeply. You can’t microwave personal growth; it requires a slow cooker.

The bible says “in the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider; surely God has appointed the one as well as the other.”

By taking time to reflect:-

1. You gain confidence in decision making.

Ever made a snap decision and later wondered if you did the right thing? Reflective thinking can help to defuse that doubt. It also gives you confidence for the next decision. Once you have reflected on a decision, you don’t have to repeat every step of the thinking process when you are faced with it again. You’ve got mental road markers from having been there before.

2. You clarify the big picture.

Reflective thinking encourages us to go back and spend time pondering what we have done and what we have seen. To keep from making the same mistake over and over again you must stop and examine the process that led to it, in other words, reflection helps you see the big picture.

3. You take a good experience and make it a valuable experience.

They say that we learn by experience, no we learn from evaluated experience. An experience becomes valuable when it informs and equips us. That is why daily prayer and bible reading are so essential. You will understand things in God’s presence that you won’t understand any other way.

Hymn Stories (3 of 3)

Rev'd John S. B. Monsell

*Fight the good fight with all thy might;
Christ is thy Strength and Christ thy Right;
Lay hold on life and it shall be
Thy joy and crown eternally.*

JOHN Samuel Bewly Monsell, born in Ireland in 1811, was educated at Trinity College, Dublin, graduating in 1832. His first post was as curate of Templemore, Derry (1834-1836), and, after holding a number of ecclesiastical positions, including vicar of Egham, Surrey, he became rector of St Nicholas's Church, Guildford, in 1870, and Chaplain to Queen Victoria (1870-1875).

He was a prolific poet and hymn writer, publishing eleven volumes of poetry and approximately three hundred hymns. His books included Hymns and Miscellaneous Poems (1837) and Litany Hymns (1870), but he is best remembered for the hymn Fight the good fight with all thy might which first appeared in 1863. Only this and three of his other hymns are still sung today.

Despite the first line, this hymn is not a Christian battle-song in the style of Onward Christian Soldiers or Soldiers of Christ arise. Rather, it is a call to faithfulness. Each of the verses is based on a verse from the Epistles. The first echoes 1 Timothy 6:12, "Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life." The second, with its athletic connotation, follows Hebrews 12:1, "Let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us."

*Run the straight race through God's good grace,
Lift up thine eyes and seek His face;
Life with its way before us lies,
Christ is the Path and Christ the Prize.*

The third verse is from 1 Peter 5:7, "Cast all anxiety on him, for he cares for you"; and the fourth from Colossians 3:11, "Christ is all, and is in all."

Monsell believed that hymns should be enthusiastically sung and full of joy. He wrote: "We are too distant and reserved in our praises." In 1875, whilst supervising the rebuilding of St. Nicholas Church, Guildford, he slipped and fell from the roof, and died shortly afterwards from his injuries.

Drop In

The Drop In at St Margaret's Church, Brookfield which is every Thursday afternoon from 2pm till 4pm.

Since we started last October we have seen a steady stream of people wanting to come and chat over a cup of tea or coffee. People stay for as long as they wish (refills are plenty!) It is a chance to meet people and make new friends.

It is very friendly and informal.

We also have a book exchange which is proving very popular. Thanks to everyone who has provided books for us along with all the volunteers.

Unwanted books are taken to a charity shop for other people to enjoy.

Please pass the word to friends and neighbours as we would love to welcome more people.

Stainton Parish Church have their Drop In on a Tuesday afternoon from 2pm till 4pm. All very welcome.

HILTON FILLING STATION

ON Tuesday, 2nd April we enjoyed a very informative and sensitive talk from Julie Parker, Christians against Poverty (CAP) co-ordinator, Tees Valley Community Church. Julie's theme for the evening was 'My two journeys': with CAP and Cancer. Julie was happy to take questions from our guests and we had a dedicated prayer ministry team on hand following her talk. Helen Malbon who is also from TVCC, shared her gifted talents in leading the worship to give another spiritual uplift to our event

Our next Filling Station Event will be held on Tuesday 7th May 2019 commencing 7.30 pm in Hilton Village Hall. This day follows May Bank Holiday Monday and will be a lot different in structure to our usual events, in that we haven't invited a guest speaker or worship leader. The evening's theme is 'HOPE' and each member of the Host Team, plus one guest will share what 'Hope' means to them and give a short talk or testimony. The worship will be a mix of music and videos chosen by each member.

Hilton Filling Station Host Team: Bob, Julia, Graham, Carolyn, Vivienne, Sally, Barbara and Angela extend a warm welcome to all our regulars and any new visitors who would like to join us for our next and any future informal evenings of worship teaching and prayer. We will have an event on Tuesday 4th June when we will once again welcome some of the Alberti family, St Barnabas' Church, Linthorpe to speak and lead the worship. Also why not make a note of the date for our Summer Party on Tuesday 2nd July when we are planning a Barbecue; hoping to have an informal evening outdoors. It should be a great evening to include invited past speakers and worship leaders as guests.

We always begin our evenings with really good coffee, homemade cakes and lots of friendly chit chat as we get to know one another a lot better and share our faith.

Why did he have to die?

He healed the deaf, the dumb the blind. He heard the outcast's cry.

They brought the poor and lame to him. Why did he have to die?

He sought the lonely and deprived, he heard the widow's sigh.

He helped a harlot start afresh. Why did he have to die?

He brought his life to darkened minds, he lifted truth on high.

He gave new aims, new hope new life. Why did he have to die?

At last they nailed him to a cross and left him there to die.

They mocked and scorned and tortured him. Can someone tell me why?

He came to heal my troubled life, my ways to purify, to redirect my selfish thoughts. That's why he came! That's why!

He came to help me overcome. He came to cast away, my jealousy and foolish pride. That's why he came! That's why!

He came to prove the strength of love, with evil powers to vie,
to conquer death and give us hope.

That's why he came! That's why!

Still men today resist his way. Condemn the Lord to die.

By holding out against his love. Dear Master – is it I?

Angela Sayer

Within you is the strength to meet life's challenges

(Lisa Wroble 12.11.2010)

Every challenge in your life helps you to grow.

Every problem you encounter strengthens your mind and soul.

Every trouble you overcome increases your understanding of life.

When all your troubles weigh heavily on your shoulders remember that beneath the burden you can stand tall, because you are never given more than you can handle, and you are stronger than you think.

We need to remember we have strength within us and should never lose sight of it.

We should also not stress over things we have no control over or cannot change.

Deborah Perks

Our Church Family

Harry Norris is St Margaret's oldest member. In his 98th year he is still active and is a gentleman in every sense of the word.

This is his story:-

I was born in 1921 in Union Street Middlesbrough and attended Fleetham Street School and then Hugh Bell Central. My first job was in the purchasing department of Pease and Partners, a local steel works, where I remained until volunteering for the RAF in 1940. I became an aircraft fitter, with postings to squadrons in the Isle of Man, France, Canada, Egypt, and finally Arabia. I was demobbed in 1946.

During these years I worked on most of the wartime planes i.e. Spitfires, Hurricanes, and Lancaster bombers, and then the newly constructed Mosquito, and then to go on and fly in them. It was a most unforgettable experience.

I returned to my old firm as assistant to the works manager, and then to the account's department. During my time there I was the captain of both the cricket and football teams, playing in the local leagues.

I married my wife Marjorie, (who had served in the WRNS) in 1948, and we were blessed with two children (Alan and Deborah).

At that time I began studying for an accountancy qualification, and moved to ICI where I remained until my retirement in 1980. I then spent most of my spare time as treasurer for various charities.

Marjorie and I then decided to spend the next few years on world travel; sadly I lost Marjorie in 2013 after almost 65 years of a happy marriage.

I then joined groups promising gentle exercise, use of the gym, carpet bowls, and social outings, and I am currently treasurer of one of these groups.

Two years ago I was awarded the Legion d'Honneur for services during the war, and in that same year was invited to the Queen's garden party in Buckingham Palace which I attended with my daughter.

(The Legion of Honour (full name: National Order of the Legion of Honour; French: Ordre national de la Légion d'honneur) is the highest French order of merit for military and civil merits, established in 1802 by Napoleon Bonaparte and retained by all later French governments and regimes.)

My involvement with St Margaret's church began years ago when I was treasurer for the scout group. I later became a member of the PCC and joined the gardening team and have been a church cashier for many years. I have always held a strong belief in the Christian faith and hope that it continues to influence me.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

Agatha Christie's "Poirot" The Clocks

FOUR clocks surround an unidentified corpse in a blind woman's house, and a young typist is summoned to the crime scene. However, Poirot is convinced that the complicated setup is merely hiding a simpler solution.

Investigating a spy-ring, Lt. Colin Race comes to Wilbraham Crescent, where he literally bumps into agency typist Sheila Webb, as she comes flying out of number 19, the home of blind receptionist Millicent Pebmarsh. Sheila has discovered the body of a man whose identity proves hard to confirm, surrounded by four clocks, stopped at the same time. Miss Pebmarsh does not know the man and did not ask for the services of Sheila, who is the initial chief suspect. However, as Poirot is brought in to assist Inspector Hardcastle in the case, the murderer strikes again, Poirot comes to realize that the man was killed elsewhere and brought to Miss Pebmarsh's house. The neighbours claim to have seen nothing but Poirot believes one of them may have had a secret which was worth killing for and sets out to unmask them, as well as explaining the significance, if any, of the clocks. At the same time, Colin solves his investigation with Poirot's help.

The Clocks features antagonists who commit a series of murders. Although their initial plot targeted a single victim, they began taking more lives in order to cover up the original crime.

Like the schemers in this story, the religious authorities formed a conspiracy of their own. After Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead they called an emergency meeting to plot his death. But they didn't stop there. After Jesus rose from the dead, the religious leaders spread lies about what happened at the grave. When they began a man for the "greater good" of the nation became a web of lies, deceit and multiple casualties.

Sin plunges us down the road that often has no end in sight, but God always provides a way of escape. When Caiaphas the high priest said, “ It is better for you that one man die for the people than that the whole nation perish” he did not understand the profound truth of his words.

Jesus saves us from sins vicious grip. Have you received the freedom he offers?

Easter Craft Workshop

On the Saturday before Palm Sunday we held an Easter Craft Workshop.

There were a number of activities including Card Making, Painting Stones, Lollipop Flowers, colouring in pictures and assembling the Easter Garden.

We had about fifteen children with carers and parents, half way through the morning we watched an Easter video and the children had fruit snacks.

We think that most of the adults who attended had a good as time as the children. It was a very enjoyable and productive morning.

Olivia and Ami confirmed, 24th March 2019

ON the morning of 24th March, at our service in St Peter and St Paul, Olivia and Aminata (Ami) were confirmed. Olivia, now in Year 6 at school and Ami, a young woman recently come to this country, both have very different life stories, but both belong to our community here in Stainton and both wanted to commit their lives to Christ 'with their own voice' on this special stage in their Christian journey.

Bishop Paul (our resident Bishop...) confirmed them, and it was a joyful and moving service which enabled everyone at St Peter and St Paul to show their love and support for these two young women and to each other.

Whilst Olivia and Ami made their own promises, we too promised, as a community, to support them along their way. And this started, as things often do, with a beautifully prepared lunch (thank you Joan and everyone) and a magnificent cake, (thank you Tanya) made especially for Olivia and Ami, and shared out amongst us. Good fuel, for any journey!

The missing sponge

A surgeon was very selective with the people he wanted to work with. It was the first day on the job for a young nurse and the surgeon decided to issue a test. As the young nurse assisted the surgeon during a procedure, she noticed a problem.

“You’ve only removed eleven sponges, doctor,” she said to the surgeon. “We used twelve.”

“I removed them all,” the doctor declared. “We’ll close the incision now.”

“No,” the nurse objected. “We used twelve sponges.”

“I’ll take full responsibility,” the surgeon said grimly. “Suture!”

“You can’t do that!” blazed the nurse. “Think of the patient.”

The surgeon smiled, lifted his foot, and showed the nurse the twelfth sponge, and said, “You’ll do.”

It can be difficult to stand up for what is right, especially when we meet resistance. As for the young nurse, she was willing to risk disapproval and possibly even her job to stand up for what was right. Thankfully, she was working for a person who also valued integrity. It takes courage to expose ourselves and come under the heat of the spot light. In John 12:42-43, we see some people who weren’t willing to stand out, “Nevertheless many even of the rulers believed in Him, but because of the Pharisees they were not confessing Him, for fear that they would be put out of the synagogue; for they loved the approval of men rather than the approval of God.”

Which do we love more, God’s approval or man’s? It feels really good when people like us, praise us, and agree with us. Many people are even willing to sacrifice their morals and ethics in order to lay low and run with the crowd. It can be scary to be disliked, made fun of, and disagreed with. It can be hard to stand up for honesty and integrity as Christians, especially when those around us do not.

Moses told Joshua before his death, “Be strong and courageous, do not be afraid or tremble at them, for the Lord your God is the one who goes with you. He will not fail you or forsake you” (Deuteronomy 31:6).

People may dislike or disagree with us, but there is only one approval that really matters anyway, God’s. When we stand with God, God will stand with us. Therefore, no matter what other people may think, let’s be courageous Christians and pursue God’s approval above all others.

We meet on the second Tuesday each month at 2pm at St Margaret's Church Hall.

Therefore we will not be having meeting on the 14th May.

At the moment, we are organising our outing for July.

Announcement

AS you all know, I recently announced that I was going to move to a half-time post. The PCCs of Stainton and Hilton had voted unanimously for me to remain as their priest so the plan was that I would just stop being vicar of Brookfield. However, many in Brookfield's congregation have informed me that they do not want me to leave. Others in Stainton and Hilton churches have told me that Brookfield's members have told them they are sad to be leaving the plurality. I am therefore reconsidering my position and will let you know my decision once I know what it is myself. In the meantime, I shall endeavour to be the vicar that you all deserve.

SHARING WITH A WORLD IN NEED

The cash collected for our charity from St Margaret's Service on the last Sunday in March went to:

The Leprosy
Mission

We raised a total of £89.15

On the last Sunday in May, our collection – that's all the cash on the plate – will be going to:

With a small donation and big faith, John Kirkby started Christians Against Poverty in 1996. He believed God was calling him to sacrifice his career in finance and use his knowledge of the industry to help the poor in his home town of Bradford, John set off on the incredible journey of CAP. His faith adventure led him to people crippled by debt; parents who couldn't feed their children, families facing eviction and desperate people living in fear and without hope.

He used his expertise to negotiate with creditors, set up budgeting systems and offer a lifeline to those trapped in debt.

John knew that people all over the country were struggling in the same way and he began looking to replicate the work across the UK. With the vital ingredients of a Church to partner with, a passionate person to be trained as a debt counsellor and the faith that God would provide, four new CAP centres were opened at the end of 1998.

Please join him in his kitchen to hear all about where CAP began, show you where it all started and the exciting vision for the future as they mark 20 years.
