1st November

ALL SAINT'S SUNDAY

WELCOME.

Let us join in worship with Saints in heaven and on Earth.

Thought for the day

Saints are not a special breed or cast. They do not possess a certain blend of skills.

There is really only one thing that marks out a saint from the rest. They are the ones who know their need of God and do something about it. Susan Sayer

COLLECT

Almighty God,
you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

THE BOOK OF REVELATION. ch7.9–17

In these verses from his prophetic vision St John sees a staggering number of people, from every race, ethnicity and language, praising God. A reminder to us of God's love for all people, and the essential unity of humankind.

Despite all our efforts to divide people based on appearance or heritage, Scripture is clear that all people, of all tribes and languages, will be represented in God's eternal plan of salvation.

After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying 'Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, singing, 'Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God for ever and ever! Amen.' Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, 'Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?' I said to him, 'Sir, you are the one that knows.' Then he said to me, these are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.'

PSALM 34.1–10

R Those who trust in him will understand truth

1 I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

2 I will glory in the Lord; let the humble hear and rejoice.

3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the Lord; let us exalt his name together.

4 I sought the Lord and he answered me and delivered me out of all my terror.

5 Look upon him and be radiant, And let not your faces be ashamed.

6 I called in my affliction and the Lord heard me and saved me from all my troubles.

7 The angel of the Lord encompasses those who fear him, and he will deliver them.

8 Taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are they who trust in him!

9 Fear the Lord, you that are his saints, For those who fear him lack nothing.

10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger, But those who seek the Lord lack nothing that is good.

THE FIRST LETTER OF JOHN. ch 3.1–3

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.

Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

THE GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
ACCORDING TO MATTHEW. 5.1-12

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

‘Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake,

for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.’ This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ

Prayers in memory of ordinary saints

We give you thanks, Lord God, for all the saints whoever worshiped you;

In homes and gardens; cathedrals, churches or meeting houses; Schools and all places of learning, Prisons or open country.

Wherever your name was worshipped and adored, there we can find your saints.

We give you thanks, Lord God, for hands lifted in praise: Hands of today’s Saints.
Manicured hands and hands stained with grease or soil, strong hands and those gnarled with age.
Children’s small hands so soft and trusting.
Gentle hands tending the needs of others ; caring and healing hands. Lord you have no hands but ours let us use them in your service.

We thank you Lord God, for hardworking saints; hard-hatted or steel-booted, uniformed or aproned, blue-collared or suited; who tend the land, produce food, safe water and the goods we rely on. Carers, medics, lawyers, workers in finance and security, parents and teachers; any who find the time in their busy lives to reach out in your name. These saints leave their mark on the earth for you, for us, for our children.

Thank you, Lord God, for the tremendous sacrifices made by those who have gone before us. For those who faced and those who still face persecution and death with fortitude, faith and sacrifice. Bless the memories of your saints, in every age. From their examples of faith, love, dedication and worship, may we learn to walk wisely in your ways carrying your Gospel out into our largely uninterested world.

Gracious God, you take us as we are and transform us by your life in us, clear our lives of all that is not of you.

Merciful Father accept these prayers for the sake of your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen

Let us say the Lord’s prayer together
OUR FATHER, WHO ART IN HEAVEN...

“All of the places of our lives are sanctuaries; some of them just happen to have steeples.
And all of the people in our lives are saints; it is just that some of them have day jobs and most will never have feast days named for them.”– writer and speaker Robert Benson“

I am not a saint, unless you think of a saint as a sinner who keeps on trying.”– Nelson Mandela“

All the hungers we have for love, for union, for happiness are given by God to lead us to him.
The difference between a saint and the greatest sinner is where they go to satisfy that hunger.”– author and speaker Christopher West“
